

New Submission Deadline: March 17th, 2009

CONTRIBUTE TO THE 2009 MALT BULLETIN!

The deadline to submit has been moved to Tuesday, March 17th. So, if you're still considering a submission, please feel free to contact me about ideas you might have or just send one in! Feel welcome to send things in the form of.....

1. Announcements
2. Teaching Tips
3. Articles / Essays / Papers
 - If, for your example you've given a presentation recently at a MALT session at MEA-MFT or elsewhere, we can publish a version or write-up of it in the Bulletin!
 - If you've recently led a study abroad group or had an exchange experience with other schools or overseas visitors, we can publish your story in the Bulletin!
4. Or....any other ideas any of you might have!

Suggested topics (among others....)

- Teaching approaches and ideas used in the classroom
- Technology / technologies in the classroom (including web resources)
- Study and visits abroad
- Reports on language / literature / culture – related events in your area
- Samples of your research or reports on presentations you've given
- Networking experiences and ideas between schools within Montana and elsewhere

- Personal notes / bio features (on students or instructors)
- Language program administration
- Ideas for the future of language teaching at your school, in your district, in general....

If you have questions or would like to consider offering a submission, please feel free to contact me. I'd be happy to hear from you to receive submissions or discuss ideas. Electronic submissions would be preferable, but hard copy may be accepted, as well. Feel free to include photos and graphics!
